Application Portfolio

This programme trains both analytics for business companies, advisory structures, governmental bodies, nonprofit organizations and advanced scholars in the fields of political science and international relations. It provides for an advanced interdisciplinary understanding of the Eurasian region, particularly the post-Soviet states.

The programme curriculum has been developed around a core conceptual learning in comparative politics, international studies and area studies as well as an exciting range of courses that cover politics and society in contemporary Russia, Eastern Europe, Central Asia, and South Caucasus; social policies in these countries; policy analysis; political economy, international development initiatives and international politics of Eurasia. It emphasizes solid methodological training provided through a number of key methodological courses and methods-oriented research seminars. Alongside this, the programme offers practically-oriented courses devoted to the development of business companies in the region through the lenses of ESG agenda and issues of social and political risks.

As a result, we provide you with great expertise in the post-soviet area and cutting edge tools to analyze contemporary political and social processes for the benefits of different target groups.
